このプロジェクトは、近年盛り上がりを見せているグローバル・アジアズ（Global Asias）という学際的な分野で活躍する日米の若手研究者のネットワーク形成することを目的とし、2023年春に実施予定のパブリック・レクチャー・シリーズである「サイバー・チャット」に加え、参加者を選考した後に実施するオンライン・セミナーやグローバル・アジアズ・イニシアチブが主催する国際シンポジウム「Global Asias 7」への参加、そしてが同イニシアチブが発刊する学術誌「Verge: Studies in Global Asias」への寄稿などを予定しています。

グローバル・アジアズと日本研究との対話を構築、および、グローバル・アジアズの概念的視野と制度的可能性を発展させることを目的として、2023年4月・6月に、「Challenges and Opportunities for Global Asias Approaches to Japan Studies」と「Migration, Identity, and Diasporas at the Intersection of Japan Studies and Global Asias」をテーマとした全2回のサイバー・チャットを実施します。グローバル・アジアズのアプローチ、トピック、オリエンテーションに取り組んでいる研究者を招き、この新しい学際的な分野に内在する可能性と課題を明らかにします。本サイバー・チャットはオンラインで行われます。

"CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES FOR GLOBAL ASIAS APPROACHES TO JAPAN STUDIES"

MONDAY, APRIL 24, 2023
7:00-9:00PM EST | 8:00-10:00 AM TOKYO TIME

Academic disciplines — like Japan Studies — come with their own methodologies, assumptions, canons, and lineages of received wisdom. Thinking across disciplines — such as is required by multidisciplinary approaches like Global Asias — requires deep listening, some relinquishment of expertise, and an openness to ways of thinking otherwise.

- How does the concept of Global Asias encourage you to navigate the epistemic expectations of, and generate alternatives to, the disciplinarity of Japan Studies?
- What are some of the challenges/obstacles in Japan Studies to enacting Global Asias scholarship using interdisciplinary, or multidisciplinary, approaches?
- What kinds of tools and resources need to be developed to address the challenges/conflicts/disagreements that inevitably arise as part of Global Asias as a collaborative scholarly enterprise related to Japan Studies?

GAI will provide all Cyber Chat participants with a year-long Project Muse subscription to Verge: Studies in Global Asias, so that they can become more familiar with the field.

We would love to be in conversation with you and look forward to using these Cyber Chats to create collaborative spaces for people to think through these issues together. This is an open format conversation via zoom but to limit the size of the group we will use an application process. Applications due by Monday, April 3, 2023 and can be submitted here: https://bit.ly/spring2023cyberchat

GLOBAL ASIAS CYBER CHAT 2
"MIGRATION, IDENTITY, AND DIASPORAS AT THE INTERSECTION OF JAPAN STUDIES AND GLOBAL ASIAS"

TUESDAY, JUNE 13, 2023
7:00-9:00 PM EST | 8:00-10:00 AM TOKYO TIME

As an archipelago, the Japanese islands have been a site of cultural exchange and migration for centuries, resulting in complex identities and cultural flows. On the one hand, people who trace their heritage to the Japanese islands have created diasporic communities around the globe. Some of these diasporas stem from Japanese laborers who traveled to the Americas and others have their origins in the displacements of 20th century warfare. On the other hand, there are sizable ethnic, regional, or linguistic minority populations within Japan.

- How does putting Japan in this larger, transregional, and multiethnic context open possibilities for collaboration in your own research?
- What are some of the challenges or obstacles to working on questions of migration, identity, and diaspora in the field of Japan Studies?
- How might an interdisciplinary and collaborative approach, such as Global Asias, enable new directions or new connections in your research?
