

Changing China, Changing Perceptions:
A Joint Workshop between NTU and UTokyo 2024

Date: November 15 (Fri.), 2024

Venue: First Conference Room (3rd Floor), IASA, Hongo Campus, University of Tokyo

Co-hosted by Department of Political Science, NTU and GAS Program, IASA

Participants:

National Taiwan University

Min-Hua HUANG (Chair and Professor, Department of Political Science)

Hsin-Che WU (Associate Professor, Department of Political Science),

Seng-Yee SIN (Master Student, Department of Political Science)

Cheng-Hoe LEE (Master Student, Department of Political Science)

Univ. of Tokyo

Shigeto SONODA (Professor, Institute for Advanced Studies on Asia)

Pattajit TANGSINMUNKONG (Assistant Professor, Institute for Advanced Studies on Asia)

Yimin SHI (Master Student, Graduate School of Interdisciplinary Information Studies)

Program

10:30-10:50 Greetings and Introduction of the Workshop

10:50-12:20 Session 1: Diversity among Viewers

Chair: Shigeto SONODA

Speaker (1) Min-Hua HUANG

“Growing Polarization of Perceptions Towards China Policy in East Asia: Evidence from Asian Barometer Survey”

Speaker (2) Yimin SHI

“Understanding Generational Differences in Japanese Attitudes Towards China”

12:20-13:30 Lunch

13:30-15:00 Session 2: On Korean Peninsula

Chair: Min-Hua HUANG

Speaker (3) Shigeto SONODA

“Chinese Views of North/South Korea: Empirical Evidence from Four-city Survey, 2006-2014”

Speaker (4) Hsin-Che WU

“The Changing Image of China: From Likely Partner to Troublemaker on the Korean Peninsula”

15:30-17:00 Session 3: In Southeast Asian Contexts

Chair: Hsin-Che WU

Speakers (5) Seng-Yee SIN and Cheng-Hoe LEE

“Between Islam and China: The Paradox of Imagined Communities in Malaysian Chinese Identities”

Speaker (6) Pattajit TANGSINMUNKONG

“From the Symbol of Hope to Patriotism: Changing Political Meaning of China in Thai Context from 1990s”